CAPITAL PARTNERS

CAPITAL MARKET STRATEGIES & SOLUTIONS

Caliber Capital's targeted and measured approach produces a fair market share valuation, broader institutional and retail investments, increased liquidity and a strong and supportive ownership base for your company.

By focusing on building relationships with qualified investors, shareholders, analysts, brokers, the financial media and other important stakeholders, we are able to maximize value for the company's shareholders while allowing management to focus on operating their business.

Caliber Principals

Tim McNulty has gained significant experience in all facets of investor relations and corporate investment with over 15 years of corporate experience with mid- to large-cap companies. Previous positions include the investor relations officer at Intrawest Corp. (NYSE: IDR) and Canadian Airlines International (TSX: CP). Mr. McNulty is also a board member of the BC Chapter of CIRI, the Canadian Investor Relations Institute.

Doug Robb brings a diverse amount of experience to Caliber. With over 20 years in the financial industry, Doug has raised in excess of $75 million for both private and public ventures in a myriad of industries. While corporate finance and capital market strategies have been central to his professional career, Mr. Robb is the consummate salesman, and has an incredible ability to read his audience and bring the message home with both written and verbal skills.

Caliber provides a cost effective approach to managing the public business of your company.
